ST. VITUS DANCE.

A Physician Prescribes Dr. Aliles' Restorative Nervice.

DraMiles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.: My daughter Mattle, aged H; was afflicted last spring with St. Vitus dance and ner-vousness, her entire right side was numb and nearly paralyzed. We consulted a phy-ician and he prescribed Dr. Miles' Restora tive Nervine. She took three bottles before we saw any certain signs of improvement, but after that she began to improve very fast and I now think she is entirely cured. She has taken nine bottles of the Nervine, but no other medicine of any kind.

VOTES OF VETERANS

Will be Cast for McKinley-Are Proud of Their Comrade.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 6,-There have been no less than 15 regimental reunions held in this city during the past week, seen no less than 15 regimental rednions held in this city during the past week, and 'a significant fact in connection with them is the practical manimity of the old veterans for McKinley. In one lapel of their coast they were their Grand Army buttons, in the other a McKinley and Hobart backe, and they seemed to be as proud of the one as the other. I asked one of them how it was that the old soldiers were so unnimous for McKinley, when included in their number were so many patriotic Democrats who went to the front in the hour of their country's peril. He repiled: "The men whom you see to-day walking the streets of this city, with infirm step or on crutches, carrying armiess sleeves and broken down in health, saved this nation once, and they are just as patriotic to-day as they were in 1861, but, of course if there was fightling to be done, someone clear would have to do it. We consider that the honor of the nation is at stake, and we love that old flag so much (pointing to the regimental flag, which stood in the hall of the house of representatives, where the reunion was being held) that our patriotism, thank fortune, in the present contest sees its reward in made a gallant record for brakeward in made a gallant record for brakers, A man who has fought for the flag has greater respect for it. Life is dear to every one, and the man who voluntarily went to the front and risked his life, certainly placed a very high value upon the emblem of his country, so that as us veterans look at it, McKinley has lost none of the love which he shouldered his musket and went to do battle for it. I am a member of the Eighty-second regiment, which was known in the war as the Democratic regiment. In the presidential election between Lincoln and Douglas, a vote of the regiment showed a majority of only 12 votes for Lincoln. There is on the term to attend this reunion. There is members of the regiment to tell of the hardships endured and the glorious victories then achieved, and 60 of them are here to attend this reunion. There is just one man among us wearing a Bryan button, and he does not seem to be very strong in the faith. Then, again, we are all pensioners, or the most of us, at least, and we are interested in knowing what kind of money we are going to be paid in. As a matter of fact, I am a Democrat myself, and have always voted that ticket, but I am a sound money Democrat, and for that reason I expect to vote for McKinley and the gold standard. There are other Democrats in the same regiment, but they occupy the same position that I do."

The Elighty-second regiment adopted.

hime:
"Resolved, That the surviving members of the Thirty-second O. V. I., in consideration of the momentous questions now before the people, do state and declare that the hope of coming good government compels them to declare their choice for Major McKinley as the next President of the United States."

United States Consular Reports Have Wa-

Thomas Ewing Moore, United States ed the attention of the department of state to the fact that the British government has taken steps to supplement its consular service by the appointment of commercial attaches. So far two of these attaches have been appointed, one at Berlin, whose field comprises Germany. Netherlands and Scandinavia, and one at Madrid for Spain and Portugal.

The duties of these officials are to relieve the consuls of the work of introducing British goods into foreign markets, and the beginning of this service has been noted with alarm by England's greatest trade competitor, Germand's greatest trade gr to meet England's action, involving a special education and preparation of young men for a consular career. It is demanded that the consular officers be men commercially and technically trained, or cise that they be supplied with specially trained assistants.

Mr. Moore attributes this agitation in both Great Britain and Germany for the remodeling of the consular service to a perception of the excellent results attending the development by the Unital States of a system of special consular reports upon matters calculated to benefit American producers and merchants.

London Stock Market.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—The partial cessation of the demand for buillon for America has made the rates for money easier. More gold will, however, be wanted for Austria and for the coming wanted for Austria and for the coming Chinese loan, so that rates are likely to remain fairly steady. Business on the stock exchange was on a small scale, but the feeling is more cheerful. The only thing now preventing of brisker rise in Americans is the rate cutting war in the south, Still, the week's advances ranged from two to five points. Lord Salisbury's firm attitude towards Turkey is having a good effect on forcign securities. Italians were also recovered and there was good inquiry for Peruvians and Argentines on improved railway traffic reports.

Wood.

Bradstreet's: The market continues dull and prices low, although a better tone is noticeable at the close. A few large lines of wool were picked up in Boston during the past few days, including 500,000 pounds Montana, about 500,000 pounds territory, 300,000 pounds Texas and 400,000 pounds unwashed fleeces, These wools were sold at cut prices, while bids on several million pounds more were made at figures lower than holders would accept. A cable from England bidding 4c below the holders' views was received on a line of 650,000 pounds of territory wool. Holders show more disposition to keep their prices steady at the close, and bargains on large lines would be less easily obtained this -week than last. Asking prices are yet very low, but the disposition to cut lower is less marked. Fleeces are in light supply, particularly fine grades, but the demand is, dull. Australian wool is dull but held steady, Reports that more foreign wool will be shipped abrond for a market. About 200,000 pounds exported the past week, including about 50,000 pounds domestic.
